

going to go down to Watonga to have his hair cut on the ninth. Here, the war was over before he ever got started. And boy, he sure hated it that those implements were all sold. We didn't have nothing to farm with after that!

(Did he volunteer or was he drafted?)

He was drafted. He was going to go in. And, you know, he had long hair. He was going to go and have his hair cut, and here we heard the war was over. He was to go on the sixteenth of November. And here the war was over the eleventh. He didn't get his hair cut, then.

(Did he always have his hair long?)

No, he used to have it cut when he was going to school.
