

children of my friend Leonard had for their father. Father, take him by Thy right hand of righteousness through this walk of life, the life that is full tribulation, the life that is full of sorrow here on earth. Father, we do pray bless all the Fathers wherever they may be. Our Heavenly Father, no doubt our young men on the battlefields are thinking about their fathers back home. Father, watch over them. As we gather here this afternoon, Heavenly Father, there are people, our loved ones, that are sick in the hospital. Father, if it be Thy Will tough them. Our precious Heavenly Father, we just pray for your young people. We pray for our home. Father, be with them in the time of our need. Bless the little children that Thy has blessed with. Father, we just thank Thee all these that has come to enjoy and honor this father with these children. This we ask in Christ's name. Amen.

FLAG SONG PLAYED

All right, the Flag Song. Boys, let's have the Flag Song. (The Flag Song is sung in Indian language with a drum for about two minutes.)

Thank you. Thank you. Now, we're going to the Scalp Dance this afternoon. The Scalp Dance, all you ladies that are here. This is the Scalp Dance Program for you ladies that will take part in it. The Scalp Dance (speaks in Indian language for about two sentences) That's our old Indian word for it, (Indian word). (Sentence in Indian language)

SCALP DANCE SONG AND COMMENTS BY M.C.

(The Scalp Dance song begins.)

All right, all you scalp dancers, that take part. All you ladies, somebody lead the way. If I was a lady, I would be out there already. (Sentence in Indian language)

(The Scalp Dance continues for about two minutes.)

We danced after the Kiowa warriors have come back from a battle, and this victory dance is so called Victory Dance, is from the Kiowa there are many different kinds. They're not all alike, and this particular dance that you see is danced by women folks. It's called the Scalp Dance. You see the ladies right here in
