

or anything, we call them playing dolls, playing doll rags.

(Did the young boys and girls playtogether?)

They never hardly played together. It was mostly little girls that played together.

(Can you remember what kind of games boys played?)

They just run around and..because I didn't have very many boys in our family, I don't know what kind of games they play.

(What kind of things did your mother tell you when you were young about how to be to grow up to be a good person?)

Uncles, and brothers and father and mother give you advice, mostly. Don't be going around at night, stay home, be with your parents. Give us advice like not to be going around from place to place, to tents, visit around.

(Why wasn't that good?)

That was really good..

RATIONS:

(What about rations, what kinds of things did theygive?)

Oh, they used to get beans and salt meat and ..I just don't remember now.

But they used to get this salt meat and they used to throw it away, and they throw the beans away.

(Throw it away?)

Yeah, this salt meat, they said it was pig and pork like that, they thought this salt meat was from the sea it was a monster that these white people was trying to feed them. And these beans, why they'd get beans and just throw them away. They say that it was a cow's food. They throw them away. They didn't know how to cook them, they didn't know how to do.. they didn't understand all that salt meat, you know. Some pork. The beans
