

(Did they have any other kind of games like this dice game?)

Well, they use to play one game that was kind of a bone, three of them, they always be on a little string..a little stick. You throw them up and try to catch them. I don't know what you would call it. Bone Game I guess. These (dice game pieces) was given to my by...I used to play with one woman who just died recently, about a year ago, these belong to her and her daughter gave them to me. In remembrance of her. See you pass them on to the people who would take care of them.

(More discussion on DiceGame.)

(I HAVE NOT TYPED IT BECAUSE IT IS ESSENTIALLY MEANINGLESS WITHOUT BEING ABLE TO WATCH HER HANDLE THE VARIOUS PIECES AS SHE EXPLAINS THE GAME. AFTER READING THE DISCRPTION ON PAGES 16-17 HER WORDS WILL MAKE MORE SENSE.

(Did they make a lot of baskets?)

No.

(Any at all?)

None.

(Well, what about that Dice Game basket there?)

Yes, this made by our tribe. That's what I say they got this weed..I mean salt weed. You always see them, they look like these big green things out on the prarie. Mostly out in the sand hills.

(Did they make any other kind of baskets other than like that?)

No. They don't make no kind of baskets. Mostly they bead around here. Medallions. Oh, they is one woman that does beautiful work.
