

and instrumental music presented and addresses by featured speaker and next a queen was crowned with a dance by the May Pole. Did you all have that?)

Well, that would be the pairing, you see for the first seminary lunch you know.

(Did you have band and that?)

We didn't have nothing like that. We went and just enjoyed ourselves.

And we had a good dinner, you know. It was prepared by the cooks, of both schools, you see.

(Here it says the dinner ---)

That's talking about 1851 (not clear) things that you see.

(They had ah--- here's a spot where most of the May parties were held, was on a high bank on the Illinois River, some two miles south east of Tahlequah. The ground was shaded by large elms, and other trees, and had a fine spring flowing from the bank of the rockie banks. Furnish by the cold water. This was ah---back and forth.)

Here it is, just read this.

(Well, I've heard this ---)

My mother's brother by her first husband (sentence not clear) see he lived to be 99 years old. And blind, when he died.

(Have you heard of a man name Abby?)

Thirty years when he died, 1937. '34 when he died George have a been made for the gold and silver coin, but without success. That's interesting.

(They all are really interested, I think.)

Found some four miles south of Tahlequah, is a place early settlement for number of years, several houses built in the first year of thirty of the last century. All such houses exception have gradually disappeared the house that _____ which yet stand that _____ which belong to the older
