

T-663

HOGAN MARKHAM, CHEROKEE

INTERVIEWED BY: DENNIS COOPER

INTERVIEW DATE: FEBRUARY 2, 1972

TRANSCRIBED BY: DENNIS COOPER

TRANSCRIPTION CHECKED BY: MONETTE COOMBES

GENERAL SUBJECT: FAMILY BACKGROUND; EDUCATION; MISCELLANEOUS
COMMENTS; SOME LIFE HISTORY MATERIALS

TOPICS DISCUSSED:

FAMILY HISTORY

EDUCATION

FIRST ATHLETIC EVENT UNDER LIGHTS IN THAT AREA

CHEROKEE BOWS AND ARROWS

FATHER WAS CONFEDERATE SOLDIER WITH STAND WATIE

MARKHAM FERRY DAM NAMED FOR FATHER

SOME HISTORY OF PEOPLE AND EVENTS OF TAHLEQUAH

BACKGROUND OF INFORMANT:

Hogan Markham was born in May 1891. His father was Carter D. Markham and his mother was Eliza Adair Markham. Hogan graduated from Northeastern Normal School (Cherokee Male Seminary), then graduated from Junior College and in 1911 went to the University of Chicago and in 1913 came to Oklahoma University where he received his degree in Physics and went on to Dartmouth to receive his Master's degree. He has taught at Northeastern State College at Tahlequah, University of Arkansas and Oklahoma College of Liberal Arts at Chickasha, Oklahoma. During World War I, he worked for a Chemical Company in Philadelphia. In 1932 he entered the construction business and worked there until his retirement. He now lives in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.