

1 that had been purchased by the government for -- in trust
2 for the Cherokees. But, your point is that Mr. White
3 thought he did and it was Section 32 as far as he was 4 concerned?

5 MR. KAMINS: Yes, and I think
6 Mr. White would be better qualified to point because it 7 was the map -- the maps and overlays that we were using 8 were prepared by Mr. White and he saw the direction when 9 Mr. Chewie pointed from the point of arrest and 10 identified the direction in which he was pointing and the 11 location -- the general location of the arrest being 12 within Section 32, and that appears in the transcript.
13 I could get the citation.

14 THE COURT: No, that's all
15 right.

16 MR. KAMINS: But it does appear
17 in the transcript.

18 THE COURT: I agree with you.
19 Mr. White said that. I'm talking about what I observed.

20 MR. KAMINS: Now, if Mr. Chewie
21 was pointing on the map in a different direction, I don't 22 know whether we clarified whether Mr. Chewie understood 23 the overlay on the map or not and the directions on the 24 map.

25 THE COURT: I think he did, as
