

1 I recall. We had an interpreter, didn't we?

2 MR. KAMINS: Yes, we did.

3 Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: Well, I assume
5 you would like to put on evidence.

6 MR. KAMINS: Your Honor, I
7 think that there is some evidence that would be -- would
8 give added weight to this question of the ownership of
9 the land and the management of the land.

10 THE COURT: Well, you may put
11 on any you wish. You excused a Mrs. Shroder, whom you
12 had subpoenaed, and you agreed to substitute in her place
13 Mr. Daugherty.

14 MR. KAMINS: Yes, Your Honor,
15 and he is here present in the courtroom.

16 THE COURT: Very well. So
17 you may call your witness that you wish to call.

18 MR. KAMINS: Your Honor, for
19 the purpose of this examination I would like for 20 Stuart Trapp, who has examined those records in the 21 Bureau's office in Muskogee extensively, to examine
22 Mr. Daugherty.

23 THE COURT: All right.
