MR. RINGOLD:

Your Honor, we appreciate the court's patience through this long period of time. We would ask one more indulgence. It is our present intention to appeal for reasons which the court knows, and the court has signed a temporary order in this case at the very beginning and we request, and we will prepare the necessary papers, for the court to continue that in effect pending and during the appeal.

THE COURT:

The court will so

do and you will take notice of that that the court will
