

was all that I could take so I said to my playmates, "If you won't talk my way, I'm going home." And I did, walking one and one-half miles barefooted. I started learning my ABC's at Mackey Switch school while living with an aunt. (This was the next school he went to.)

(End of Interview.)