

No. No, and that's as far as we go. He's our youngest son. Now he's married, but he went back to the service again. Because he just can't make it.

(When he went to Okmulgee, you got him in through the Area Office?)

The area office, yea. There's a lady...out there, that runs that. And he had to pay for his books out of that thirty dollars. (Did he ever try to get more money?)

No, they will not let you. They won't let you. Oh, they just close. They won't let you get any more than that. I know that's what they done to sonny. They might do somebody else, better. So he just got disgusted, and he come home last year...during that Pawnee powow. He was down there, he was policeman down there. When he came back, he said I can't go back. Well, just about that time, they were going to put his picture in the paper...He was a good student. And they got a call from Okmulgee, and they said David has quit school. Well she came out here, and he was on the divan. She begged him to go back; and sonny said I cannot go back because I can't make it. I can't make it. But he was up with his grades, they were alright. That's how come they was going to put his picture in the paper.

Sonny did his laundry there, but I had to furnish the... you know, bedding, towels and sheets and blankets. I furnished that. But his meals, he had to pay for his meals and his laundry. Their meals aren't too good, either.

HEALTH CARE FOR INDIANS

(What about the public health services here at the hospital?

Do you have anything to say about that?)

Well, it's pretty good. Because he went there. My daughter got in accident here, and they really took good care of her. Because her doctor, he's a Chinese doctor. And he's really smart, and he knows. And that was my daughter's doctor. I don't know about the rest, but he really was good to her. He really did see to it that she got what she needed. And they done pretty good. I could say that about that hospital. But some of them might not have the same treatment. But this one, he just took interest in Cecelia. Because she never complain, or never wanted this or
