

or something like that. "He brought us something good and something to be happy with." "That's God's Son that brought this." That's the words. Now--another one.

(Sings another song, Number 72, a Church Song. Arapaho words to tune of "When the Roll is Called up Yonder I'll be there.")

Now. What other one shall I sing. Some of these old people, they got songs but I--

(This one you just got through with--do you know who made the words to that?)

It's pretty old song. I heard it long time ago. I don't think my boy was a year old when I heard it. We went to a camp meeting and I heard it there.

(Was that Mennonite or Baptist?)

Baptist.

(Sing another song, Number 73. Church Song.)

(What would those words be?)

They say, "Our Father, Jesus is calling us. Gather and come on. Jesus is calling."

(Do you know who made that?)

No. I always just hear them from others.

(Do you remember if you heard that in a Baptist Church or--?)

Yeah, that was Baptist church where I heard it.

(Did the Mennonites have very many Arapaho songs?)

They don't have--hardly anybody goes over there. Just that Harry Bates' song was the only song over there. Most of these songs over here I sing--when my boy was preaching over here, he used to sing them.

(When he preaching in the Pentecostal church?)

Yeah.

(Did you tell me one time you knew "Beulah Land" in Arapaho?)

No. It's--well, after he come out of that--having the Spirit, you know, he sang a song. And the way I think about it is the beginning of the world--when He created the world. That's the way it sounds. My boy sing that--Lewis' song. ....I always be singing every night. I think this little girl knows all them songs. This was Lewis' song when he was preaching. He used to sing it first, before he start preaching.
