

MORE DISCUSSION OF INDIAN HOSPITAL AND DOCTORS

(When did this new batch of doctors come in?)

Oh, they stay about a year, or two, then they go on. A bunch comes...I don't know where they come from, Oklahoma City. I notice they had the other day...he used to be his doctor. What was your doctor's name...He's a real bone specialist, you know. (Discussion about a nurse who recently left the Lawton hospital.) (The hospital is much nicer since they built that addition, isn't it?)

Yea, it's just so cool there. Oh, sister had it good. But they don't feed so good. Them Indians cooking, and they really don't know how. It's a man, especially. A lot of times, sister didn't like what they cooked, but she had to eat it.

Yea, this office, maybe you could talk to somebody else. Boy, they just pass the buck, you cannot get nothing done. You try to go over there....

INDIAN RADIO PROGRAM

(Do you ever listen to the Indians for Indians radio program?)

Yea, I listen. I like that.

(Would you listen to more programs that played Indian music or dealt with Indian affairs?)

I believe I would, you know, about Indians affairs. I tell you, people don't know what goes on at this office.

PROBLEMS OF MARKETING INDIAN ARTS AND CRAFTS; LOW PRICES PAID BY LOCAL STORES

I tell you another thing, when we had this meeting. I don't know whether she come from Norman, or where she come from. But she's trying to help the Indians. If she could get enough members, they gonna try to build, or put a place somewhere in Anadarko, where these Indians womans could take their bead work and get something for it.

(Is that Alice Marriot?)

I think so. She was down there at our meeting. That we had meeting, the Wichita meeting. He brought her there that night, I don't know what her name is. And she said she would try and help these Indian women. They got a pawn shop in Anadarko, and oh, they just rob these Cheyenne and Arapahoes for that beautiful
