

(Will you say that again?)

Mr. Wheeler: (Wichita Indian word), that means stick, (Wichita Indian word) (pause)

(Lunch time.)

Mr. Wheeler: Well, that's about all in that woman's game.

(Mmm-hmmm.)

Mr. Wheeler: Let's see, let's try that stick.

(Okay.)

Mr. Wheeler: Stick game, you said you saw--you got some there?

(Yeah.)

Mr. Wheeler: (Wichita Indian word)

(Listen, why don't we wait until Monday.

Mr. Wheeler: All right.

(Okay?)

Mr. Wheeler: All right.

('Cause I'm--we--I'm going to try to get--I'm been trying to get down to--to Apache for two weeks.)

Mr. Wheeler: Oh, yeah.

(I see somebody down there, and I never get down there. I think I'll run down there this afternoon.)

Mr. Wheeler: Yeah, okay.

(So, and we can wait until--I'll be back out Monday.)

Mr. Wheeler: All right.

(Is that okay with you?)

Mr. Wheeler: Yeah. All right.

BIRTHDAY DECIDED WITH DRAFT BOARD

(You got a birthday Sunday, huh?)
