

(What about a thunderbird?)

Thunderbird? Well, a thunderbird is just a symbol and thats all it is. There's no connection with the peyote meetings.

(What about the moon? Do the Caddo ever talk about it like they do the birds?)

No, there's a..its a..I can draw it out more than I can explain it.

Then there's what they the main road and then there's a cross. Well theres a..little mound like here. (Pointing to drawing) that's where the water is at here. Then when they enter, you enter from the left and then you go and..here's the fire. Here's where the arrows stand and here's the feathers here. And then the road man whoever the priest is, sits here. At the head and this drummer sits here and the head singer sits over on the right. See, that's the way the..see when they go, in they go here and bless them. Get that Indian blessing here and then they proceed and go into their proper places. But sometimes if its a special meeting they have someone who sits here at this crossroads.

(Are these drawn on the floor? Do they have lines or something?)

Yes, uhuh.

(Oh, they actually have lines?)

Yes uhuh.

(How do they..)

We could go sometime. I could take you over to uncle Francis place.

That's the only place that I know that the moon stands there all the time. Of course, they re-decorate it. Now some of them has that design here for that mostly on ours is a star. That's the difference. And there's no special design. There's a little extra cross here. See when they go in they stlp here and give that Indian blessings and then they go, but you're
