you afn't nothineo-in my book. And I spitit my ticket, we gett some sorryfellers in . office, but. I don't put my--you have to put 'om out. So I had lottsa--but it wes pretty tough:
MORE BACKBROUND MATERUAL:
(Didn't you tell, me ypu were part Indian?)
I'm.Cherokee...My mother was a educated woman, she--my father was undducated, but my mother had a pretty eogd education. And my dad was jest an apen hearted man, you know; and I--ske had a uncle that was on be Dates commiasion. I think his nare was cox. And dad thought this was always be a big open country, you know. Never thought. this was always be a bie open county you know: Never thought nothing boui a_state, because it left Texas, bechuse it was a stateo Come into Indian ter: io: $\mathrm{H} y$ and (unimealieible) héld land on a million miles-prothe" and sister. There': three of us. Their both dead. Bat, that vas one mistake he malie but, he made several of 'em:' He got oil field doin thera by fox by flvea, ofl homa felle: a :a water well thore and he weitt $250^{\circ}$ feęi and steuck eas, but no water. So he hai o //fand finglly ofl man come down messed around and of course they du: down ain: .a thouranc feet, and seo, what ina there and zo they est set the vell do:n a

 But; my dad had to preat and they had to pa hirn an chips and wetstone. Ancira they didn't want to eat, :hat they didn't rant to keep on the ...they give to the

