

told my wife, you know--now, we don't know. We don't go by the--well, we still try to go by the old ways, you know, about it.

(Yeah.)

And about what they try to do. And we just barely get just little, you know. We kind of--what I'm going to say is: my idea is I try to get things from way back.

(Yeah.)

I'll tell them.

(Yeah.)

I tell them--I told them--maybe, see, maybe, they get tired of me.

(Mmm-hmm.)

They get tired of me saying, you know, same thing what the old people used to say. I just use the word what they say.

(Yeah.)

And so, right now, it ain't mine. No, it ain't mine. Well, from the start, some (not clear), my idea, you know, the way I looked at it from way back in years, you know.

(Yeah.)

I never did know how--but it was started some way, but I just didn't know when.

(Yeah.)

And so, I'm--I was talking some of the people here--my niece was old way--I'm just--I'm just talking about, you know, morality.

(Yeah.)

FAITH IN GOD - PRAYERS - FEASTS

Well, well, at that time, I was in the hospital, you know. I was there few months, and when the month came--this next month is when Pawnee--my wife come up there, and says, "We're going to go Pawnee." I told her,
