

"Well, that's good." Well, what they had over there, you know, I just--to me, you know, just kind of a Bible, to worship. That's what I told the Pawnees, you know. I told them, "There's times we come together, you know. We--all we do is we talk to that man asking--ask him, you know, what we want.

(Yeah.)

Well, when I was at the hospital, my niece, you know--I guess those people over there--I know quite--I know plenty all of them, not all of them, but few what I meet, you know.

(Yeah.)

Well, them people over there, you know, they prayed for--they pray for me and my cousin. We was at the hospital same time. Everytime returning thanks for the meal, you know, what they're going to eat---

(Yeah.)

---there's always prayers in there, you know.

(Yeah, yeah.)

(not clear) want them people (not clear) get well, you know.

Well, I guess, my niece heard it. Well, when they were here, she gave a feast over there at the Gracemont.

(Uh-huh.)

Well, people over there (not clear).

(Yeah.)

My ma, she give the food---

(Yeah.)

---a meal, you know, to the Pawnees.

(Yeah.)
