

It's not it. You got to--you got to be a poor man.

(Mmmm-hmmm.)

You got to be a poor man, you know, ain't got nothing.

(Yeah.)

PRAYER FOR GUIDANCE

But it's just your talk--what you talk to your tribe--how you talk, you know. Well, I told Mr. Swift--me and him was at the hospital same time. He handled--he was the one give it to me. Well, we handle--we used to get in all the--about the tobacco. I told him, "Well, we can't run it straight. We can't run it. We just try to do our best." He come here. He come to me with special trip, you know--tell me, "Well," something about, "I cannot do nothing. You people don't give it to me, I just got to do best I can," you know--I can, you know.

(Mmmm-hmmm.)

Well, well, when I come to thinking about it, "Oh, what am I going to do?" you know. But I just thought, "Well, old people told me, 'whenever you want something, you got to put that man first, and ask him what you want.'"

(Yeah.)

What you want. He--you just have to go that way. Well, all right, I took it. Well, I couldn't think, you know, how I'm going to work this. But the real way is, you know, I'm supposed to get somebody little older man than I am or anybody, you know--anybody to make you tobacco.

(Mmmm-hmmm.)

You got to ask somebody.

(Mmmm-hmmm.)

He can't--he can't refuse, you know. He's got to do it.

(Yeah.)
