

So, well, I look at myself. I don't know. He may not do it, you know.

I'm not depending on him. Well, all right, I just made my mind up.

All right, I'll ask Almighty I will do this. Well, in a way, I may not run it right, but I'm going to try. It's best to try things.

(Mmm-hmmm.)

If it works, it'll work.

(Mmm-hmmm.)

TOBACCO - PREPARATION AND USE IN CEREMONY

Well, all right. I got my tobacco, you know, ready. I told my wife,

"I'm going to fix it myself because I don't want to go over there and tell somebody else, of course. I'm going to fix it myself." Then, when it's time to take it, I'm going to take it. I'm going to take it myself, give it to them.

(Mmm-hmmm.)

Of course, I done ask God I'm going to do this, you know.

(Mmm-hmmm.)

I done ask--I done put them in the (not clear). It's got to go.

(Yeah.)

Well, but in a way, we got a way, you know, that--when they get somebody got to make that tobacco, give it to you, and then, you select--select two, got to be two men on the side. One of them is a right-hand man, and there's another one right here, you know. They both got to try to help the leader, you know.

(Yeah.)

But I didn't have any. But people was helping me. That's what I wanted.

(Yeah.)

Well, (not clear), so they--they (not clear) tobacco over there, you know.

Well, they--they'll accept it, you know. They can't turn it down. They
