

(Yeah.)

They just accept the tobacco and set that day, you know, they have that giveaway.

(Yeah.)

All at the same time then.

(Yeah. When--what day--what day do they smoke the tobacco?)

Well, it's kind of, you know--well, we have certain days. Maybe, when we accept the tobacco, well, we got to notify people when they're going to have it, you know. When we're going to have it, and that's about all, you know. We got to kind of wait, you know, wait a little, not too long, you know.

(Yeah.)

We don't--well, we don't want to stay there too long, and accept it. Well, they have the--on time that tobacco. Then, they set that, you know, day.

(Yeah.)

They don't smoke it at the, you know. But the old people might have done that 'cause they had own pipes here, the old people.

(Yeah.)

Back in the years, you know.

(Yeah.)

They carry their pipes.

(And how long do you stay up there at Pawnee usually?)

Well, it's according to--it's according to how long, you know, you going, you know--it's the people there. It's their, you know--it's their--it's their wish whatever they want to, you know--whenever they want to set their day or it's up to them.

(Yeah.)

You got to go by them. (not clear) up there, you know. They're head of
