

(Yeah.)

Well, Wichitas, we don't have no--oh, we got some special song, but, you know--well, we try to use old--old songs.

(Yeah.)

We don't--oh, we sing few of them, you know, what they sing around these pow-wows. We try to use our, you know--it's got meaning to it, you know. Now, they--we got lot of songs, but we just can't--didn't learn (static)--didn't learn them.

DANCES IDENTIFIED - SEVERAL

(What kind of dances do they do?)

Huh?

(What kind of dances do they do?)

Well, they mostly--when they giveaway like that, they use this war dance, war dance, old time, you know. (static)

(Do they--do they round dance?)

Yeah, yeah, they can--well, since they have these service clubs, you know, they have to have a special song, you know.

(Yeah, yeah.)

They--yeah, they round dance.

(Do the Wichitas ever--you don't ever do the stomp dance?)

Well.

(The kind the Creek and Caddos do.)

Well, way back in years, I think, they did; but they didn't, you know, use it too much. They--they used to dance it, you know, but--we through with that tobacco deal?

(Mmm-hmm.)
