In the mornings, when we got up and when it whe time to go eat. And then they blow the bugle again for sleep. And when it was time to eat and we went to dinner. Everything mas just done with the bugle.

SUSIE 'S MOTHER' DID NOT BELIEVE IN EDUCATION FOR GIKLS
Now, when I was going to Chilocco, I didn't let my mother know when II pent to the office" and asked the superintendent to see if"I cauld go off to school. Make this application, you know. And this Mot cleary sent me in there to my/step-father. He said;- "Go in there where Mr. Burns is and have him make, your量 application, oh, I just felt like a litte whipped.dog. I didn ${ }^{4} t$ want to go in there where he was. My father might not like it. "What can I' do for you? I tơld him I' wan ted to go to school at Chilocco. He said, "What?" I said, "I want to go to school at Chilocco." I-finished sixth grade there at Concho. Said, "How long do you want to go?", "Five years," I even made myself: make good grades so could go off" to school. She saifd' 'You know five years is too long, I tồ them well, $I$ wanted to go fine years: She said, "don i¢ you want to go for three?" No, I said five. So? was excted. I was anxiqus/to go. Ando pur train was late that evening-we went to catch our train to Chilocco.
$r_{a}$ (Where did you catch that train from? )
Oklahoma City. Wel took that Santa' Fe. ' My cousins that were going to school there, oh theyo had. big orchard on the north side. We got off--there was nobody to met us, So all of us--there was a whole bunch of us, we had to well it: Any my coúsins told mé, said, "Thete's 'a cendetery" right/hérel" "You'd better hold' your mouth of those ghosts will make your mouth crooked /not clear/ I told this cousin of mine, her name was Susie, too,
