

Susie: We don't even know the aunt's name.

John: All we know is she's supposed to be in Salem, Oregon.

(Now is that where he lived all this time?)

Susie: Yeah, he lived with his aunt there.

(Why don't you send a letter to the high school, too--whoever is in charge of the high school and explain to them?)

Susie: I don't know where he went to school.

(Well--)

Susie: See, I don't know--I don't know.

John: How old he'd be now.

Susie: I don't know.

Well, I know I couldn't find it now, but I got a--

Susie: All we know is that FBI has fingerprints of everybody.

(Yeah, just about. Quite a few people.)

Susie: They ought to locate him.

(Well, they'd have the best chance.)

Susie: And I've got a chance for my cousin to--he lives right there in Clinton and he's a councilman. Don't do nothing about it.

I've got that where they don't know where they are and everything like that. And it's gives his birthday and all that. This guy you are talking about.

Susie: I don't know

POW-WOW TO BE SHOWN ON FORT WORTH T.V.

Oh, this man I was telling you about, he said he's gonna show what they done Saturday night from a Fort Worth station. That is what he said. That's where he's located. He don't receive no money, he just wants to try that. He calls that Santa Fe Trail.

Susie: It wouldn't be that railroad company would it? They always advertise this Santa Fe Railway? They have /not clear/ of it.

(Although it might be. It's probably a group that's trying to,
