

Mr. G. Ragweed, yes.

Mrs. H: Was it the following year or two years later or three years later?

Mr. G. Two years later.

Mrs. H. Two years later.

Mr. G.: Then the next is Wolf Creek Sundance (Kiowa for wolf creek) Wolf Creek.

CRAZY HILL:

Mr. G. (Kiowa) Ah, that's that Able Bigbow's father he kill a man, jealousy. That's no good. I don't like to tell that kind of story. He's jealous, you know. That's the way people are now today. There is still jealousy. They keep punching his wife and pretty soon he get too fast. I guess he shot, Able Bigbow. Able Bigbow shot this man.

Mrs. H: Give him the name.

Mr. G. (Kiowa.) Bigbow.

(Who was the other man?)

(Kiowa) They call him the Blue Necklace, he belongs to the Ware (family). (Kiowa conversation.) I don't like them kind of stories. That don't help nobody. (Kowa) Able's father he jealous and he shot him and killed him.

~~Mrs.~~ H.: Was he a good looking man? (Blue Necklace)

Mr. G.: Oh, yes.

Mrs. H: What's his name Two Necklace or Blue Necklace?

Mr. G. Oh, it just one necklace, (Kiowa)

DEER WOMAN:

(Mr. G. took a trip to Omaha, Nebraska, where he saw a spernatural being known among the Kiowa as Deerwoman.)

Mrs. H: Grandpa, that story, that interesting story. You remember that
