

(Well, let me -- when, well, he -- this black corn that he held, he didn't -- that wasn't what he hid, was it? Did he -- he didn't -- did he hide that or was that -- .)

No, no, he just -- .

(Or was that -- that's just something he carried?)

He just kept it, I guess. That was his game. I don't know what he -- what he it for, you know, I guess -- I don't know, he just, oh, he never did tell me, you know.

(Yeah.)

He never did. But I seen him carrying it in his hand, you know.

(Yeah, yeah, yeah. Did he just carry that during the hand -- during hand games?)

Yeah.

(He did.)

Maybe, he -- I think he might have carried in, you know, ghost dance too because he has -- he has some -- he, he had, he sung some songs, you know. Then song, you know, they talk in Indian, you know.

(Yeah.)

Ghost dance.

(Yeah.)

He was -- .

(How -- how did they start the hand game? How did they decide what -- what team was going to hide first?)

What?

(How did they decide what -- which team, which side -- .)

Well.

(-- will hide things first?)
