

know, some people are real good at this. They just guess everytime almost.)

Well -- .

(What sort of things do they look for?)

Well, I don't know. He just use your head, I guess.

(Yeah.)

Your body, you know, you going to do this.

(Yeah.)

Sometime, you know, I see some old people, you know, they go around. There used to be ways, you know. They go around the fire, you know, and kind of use, maybe ashes for luck, you know.

(Yeah.)

When you hit it, you know, they go in there or they put them on them beads, you know. Give them somebody. Let them hide, you know. Sometime it works, and sometimes it don't. (Laughter.)

(Yeah, yeah.)

Good game if, you know, you know people just -- we play -- we play few games down here at the Indian fair.

(Uh-huh.)

We was there, you know. One time, there, you know, we played about day. Oh, I don't know, they was the one, you know, let us play, but one time, you know, they said they was going to give prize.

(Yeah.)

Wichita won it one time, but they never did get nothing. Yeah, there's some folks played. Yeah, that's about all in that hand game.

(Well, what -- what I was interested in, and I played hand game, and everytime I play, I get guessed the first time.)

Yeah.
