(Yeah.)
You hit, well, maybe, you hit the little crosses on the back on that main stick.
(Yeah.)
And, let's see, did I say them three sticks were on the back? Yeah.
(They $/$ /re down.)
Yeah, they were down.
(Yeah, yeah:)
That's.ten. Then, again if they hit -- if they hit them little crosses, and you can -- I think they can -- yeah, them red one's up. That's three. Well, that's another ten.
(Yeah.)
Another terf, well, then, they come to -- on the five, that's five when they all, you know, over on the back; you know, five, all of them. Then, when they turns other way, the colors, blue and three reds, well, that's five. (Ưh-huh.)

That's the way they count it, Wichita. But some of them, you know, got different games.
(Yeah, yeah.)

Well, that's a -- I don't know how they count them, but they use them stick though when they' -- oh, I think they use rule, you know.
(Yeah.)
You have to get them twenty sticks, you know, before it's a game. And same way. on; that side. Sometime, maybe, there's -- they pay partners. You know, maybe four play like that they sit. You know, these two are partners, these two. Sometime, they put a plumb and play two, you know, just two could pay. (Yeah.)
