

(Yeah.)

-- like that.

(Did -- did those sticks have any name?)

Let's see. Well, I just know one. I just know one. I don't know what they call them others, you know. They call it black plumb.

(The stick?)

That's ten. I think it's mostly the ten, you know.

(Oh.)

They call it (Wichita Indian word). Ten, that means -- (Wichita Indian word) is a name of the ten, you know.

(Yeah.)

Them sticks.

(Will you say that again?)

(Wichita Indian word repeated twice.)

(And what -- .)

Them fives, well, they just say five, (Wichita Indian word). Both of them blanks and up, (Wichita Indian word).

(Will you say that again?)

(Wichita Indian word repeated twice.)

(And that, that just means five.)

Yeah, both, yeah, that's both.

(Yeah.)

That (Wichita Indian word), it means ten, you know, ten points.

(What -- what about the stick? What they call that, you know, the one you play with?)

One you said?

(Yeah.)
