We pretty near got same ways, you know. So, I don't know. I think -- well, I can't hear good, you know. I think they're going to -- there's one of our members of tribal council, he was talking yesterday. And I told Ethel, "What was he saying?" "Oh," he says, "He still talking about what they're going to do." I don't know when they're going to do it, trying to dedicate the ship, you know.

(Oh, yeah.)

PEYOTE MEETING, AMERICAN NATIVE CHURCH

That's what he was talking about. And, I don't know. Now, they coming on. I talk with a boy down here at the Grace. Young boy, well, he was telling me about this American Native Church there. Well, right now, I ask him, "Well, who's the president among the Wichitas?" you know. He says, "Me." He ain't no officer.

(Yeah.)

He told me, "You come over certain day down here at Willie Camera. I think they're supposed -- try to raise a little funds, you know.

(Yeah, yeah.)

That's what they do.

(Yeah.)

Try to do. Well, I told him, "Well," I told him, "my folks come in town." They said they had to take the granddaughter to the hospital, you know.

(Yeah.)

They came back kind of late, you know. We didn't go. I don't guess anybody showed up. But as far as that concern about this American Native Church, well, I used to be, you know. I was a member.

(Yeah.)

I went in them meetings, you know. I ate that herb, you know. I don't know.
