

(What was the name of the woman that made you sit on the steps?)

Her name is Rena. And her father was there. Her father was a real old man. Had a long beard bout that long, all white hair. He lived up there in the next room and she lived in the next room. She was sent there to work and take care of the children. She was the matron of the school.

(Do you remember what her last name was?)

MacEnnis, Rena MacEnnis. That old man was old man MacEnnis. And all the little girls, us, we called him grandpa. Cause he was old you know.

(What would the matron do if any of the children got really bad?)

We had a woman doctor there. Her name was Miss Clark. I forget what her last name was. We had a big hospital there. It was built for our....he was the manager of the school, principal, or whatever you call him, and he was there and he had a big building there and they kept this one room for the sick people. Had about 6 beds in there for when you get real sick. And she had another room back that way and she had a lot of medicines in there and that's where she took care of the people.

(And what was her name?)

Miss Clark, that's all I know. I can't even remember.

(Who was the principal?)

Mr. Creegas. Rev. Creegas, I think his name was W. W. Cregas, Yeh, that was his name.

(How did the matron discipline the children when they did something that was really naughty?)

Oh, I don't know, I never did find out, because all those employers were really good to us. They were all Christian people. Everyone of them was Christian peoples. They have no kind of hard words towards us. You know I was so small and I stayed there 10 years and I never did get punished in any way for nothing...And my mother said they baptized me when I was a baby. On top of my head..they sprinkled my head, and after awhile when
