

and taking everything away from the Indian. But one thing, this might be powerful, but the Almighty, he put something over here in that state that's powerful, just like this high winds. See, you white man can't stop that. So I don't want to tell it. Yeah, it's possible to know that. We like it, it's our religion. Just like white man shoot us around here, it'd like we're persecuted. You have to have driver's license, fisher's license, everything. And the same time the white man come in and start the Indian bad, just like right now this drinking business. You seen a lot of pitiful boy s and girls in town, see, that's what white people done, see. We got to stop it. Sometimes they're pretty smart, just like the white boys fight for us right now over there, see, thse white people, they're the same, good boys fight for us over there. And everythings high, groceries and everything high you see, these people around here, they're making a lot of kick out of it. Poor boys is fighting for us over there. See, I got a lot of things I could tell, and I don't care what kind of man he is, I'll tell him. I'm a poor man myself, you know. Some of my people come over here and they want me to pray for their sons. Good boy, you know, in good health, a good boy, you know joining the service, volunteered. This fellow, I pray for them. I don't know, but maybe the Almighty know. Some of those boys are still doing pretty good over there, those I prayed for the boys. Not just my people, white people, colored people, Mexicans, you know, they're my boys out there. I heard about all kinds on the radio and TV, they make a lot of kick out of it, make money. They don't care for them boys out there fighting. My boy, the one yesterday evening you was talking...that's my boy, you know. He was in the