

service. He was a nice boy before he joined the Navy. When he come back, boy, he was sure bad. But yesterday he was drunk, you know, when you talked to him then. He's that bad when he come back home, see. Uncle Sam, you know, training boys just like dogs, you know. He don't care if you get killed out there. And her brother got wounded, got a bad leg, her son, heavy drinker. He gets pretty good, you know, but heavy drinker, He's that way.