

of those silver buttons on it.

(It has silver buttons in it?)

Uhuh.

(What kind of collar is it?)

A berth collar is a great big round circle of ruffles on it. You know ruffles.

(Did you ever go to peyote meetings while you were a child?)

Yes.

(How often did you go?)

Not very often.

(Who took you to them?)

My grandmother.

(Did she take you when she went or did she take you for a special purpose?)

No, I just had to go along cause she was taking care of me.

PUNISHMENT OF CHILDREN:

(Were you ever punished when you did anything wrong?)

Oh don't aks me about that. (Laughs) My grandmother was awful strick.

(What sort of punishment did she give you?)

Well, she didn't spare the rod. Whenever she took a notion to whip well she whipped. So that was that.

(Is that the way it is with most Caddo?)

Absolutely. Pretty strict.

(Did they whip their children in the old days too?)

Oh yes. Uhuh, if you done anything wrong, then it wasn't anything for them to whip your legs. No the really whipped, correct their children

(Is there any other way they used to punish children?)

Well they could duck you in cold water and give you a smoke spell. I
