

whole family got out.

TRIPS TO ANADARKO FOR SUPPLIES:

(Did your father or your mother go to town?)

On yes, they often went to town for provisions.

(About how often would they go to town?)

About once a week.

(Which town was that?)

Anadarko.

(Did he go on a horse?)

On a wagon. They went on a wagon.

(Did he ever have any trouble in town?)

No, none whatever.

(What about the places where he used to buy food and things like that?)

Did people ever try to cheat him?)

Well, uh they had large accounts at the old agency stores. What I know and Pa Rummage. Those were the two main..well before that there was the old town, I think it was the old town I think it was Boke..I think they called him Charley Cleveland. In the old red store, which is over in old town. That's where they traded.

(Did he ever talk about white people trying to cheat him?)

They may have but my father was pretty close-mouthed. He didn't have anything to much about things like that. Anything happened that was his own business. So I wouldn't say. He didn't tell us too much at the time. Whatever happened was his own and that was that.

(Did he sing at home very often?)

Oh yes. He was a singer. That was one of his main..and he was a wrestler
