

Oh, yes.

STORY ABOUT YELLOW WOLF CURING PARALYSIS IN CECIL'S MOTHER

Yellow Wolf, one time, doctored my mother when she was at the hospital and the doctor told me to take her home. That she'd never get well in all her life. Her face is going to be just what it is. It so happened that my father was living at that time. So I went up to Yellow Wolf and so he came over and we give him what he wanted, different things. He took his smoke and he doctored her that night, that evening. And pull out her teeth right out here right on side the nose and said that her own father that witch her--my mother's own father that witch his own daughter. It so happened, at the hospital that the doctor didn't know nothing about it. Today the white man call it the stroke--paralyzed. But after Doc--after Yellow Wolf doctored and pull that teeth out of up in here, she fainted. After he pulled that teeth out, Yellow Wolf said that she might act like she's going to die, but she's not going to die. It's just like a bullet. When this man shot it, they said it's just like a bullet. But he said, "It's in there pretty deep." He said, "But I'm going to get it out." When he pulled it out, it was the teeth, just the biggest teeth, the wisdom teeth, I guess. And when he pulled it out, why, she got well. And her face--Yellow Wolf straightened her face. And I took her to the doctor at the hospital. And I told the doctor, I said, "There she is, look at her face." She was all right. And he said, "How did you do it?" And I said, "You have to go talk to him. He won't tell you." But that's the way the Indians use to doctor when they witch anybody. (Well, when this man was--and Yellow Wolf was having trouble with that other witch doctor--)
