

(Oh, yeah. Did they paint your whole body, your legs, and everything?)

Yeah; you can--they paint--yeah, they used to paint the whole body.

(Yeah.)

It's same way in dancing.

(Yeah.)

You--long time when we dance, I didn't wear no buckskin, no.

(Yeah.)

Well, we paint up, you know.

(Yeah.)

Head dress.

(Joe, what--when--when the race was all done, what--what did people do then after they got there?)

Well, everything's over, you know. They didn't do nothing else, you know.

I don't know. Then, there's another thing. I think they use--but they wasn't at--it's after race, but nothing thing I saw. That was down camp ground, We used to all camp at.

(Mmm-hmm.)

They said they're going to have--I don't know. I didn't--I didn't see, but I just saw them, you know, coming on horses.

(Yeah.)

Women ride horses. I guess it's just kind of--might as well say after the war path, you know, they used that. I saw them over there, but men folk was carrying a small drum. I don't know what kind of songs they sing.

(Yeah.)

They--they all come in a line like that. I don't know what they call it.

(Yeah.)

You know, it's just kind of--they use that.
