

(In the air?)

Yeah.

(And then, what happens after that?)

Yeah. Then, the ball, which ever it goes.

(Yeah.)

It goes that way. They stop it over there and come back this way.

(Yeah.)

Just like any other game.

(Yeah. And you can (coughs)--you said, a lot of times, it was up in the air?)

Yeah.

(And where--do they--did they hit it along the ground too?)

Well, yeah. But I said, you know, some of them, you know, how to work it.

(Yeah.)

See, the man that's running with the ball, you know, well, he hits it. He hits it so far. You know, he's pretty fast, you know. He don't have to hit it way off. Sometimes, they do when they kind of stop the play.

(Yeah.)

Sometimes, maybe, get hold of it good, you know.

(Yeah.)

They try to hit over there where another man--another bunch be running there, you know. They--somebody pick it up and hit it again. (laughter)

(Yeah, yeah.)

Well, or else somebody be there to, you know---

(Take it away?)

Yeah, take it back, to this other way.

(Yeah, yeah.)
