

(Oh, we'll come back.)

I don't know whether they cook it or--they don't bake it. I don't know.

(Yeah.)

They might have. I don't know. I don't know how they got it, but they have yellow and red. But this red--kind of red I see down here, oh, it's south of Stillwater. It'd be on that old road. Well, bunch of rocks in there. It's--I don't know what kind of rock, but you can go like that. It's got kind of red. They use lot of that.

(Yeah.)

Says it's good for--put it on your face when it's cold. They use that, you know.

Unidentified voice: How did they decide who was on each side? Are they tribe against tribe or is it just---

(No, it's all Wichita. Okay, what other kind of games the Wichita play?)
Well, there's shinney. Well, you got that.

(Yeah. I think I got all of that.)

ARCHERY AND MAKING ARROWS

All right, well, it's a sport, this arrow. Arrows were kind of this Almighty gave it to them.

(Mmm-hmm.)

Gave it to the man.

(Yeah.)

Showed them how to fix, I guess, you know. They use this dogwood, you know. Well, you can get them. It's according to how much you want to work, you know.

(Yeah, yeah.)

You can get them big about that big. I know my uncle used to get them that
