

feathers, you know. They put it on like that and probably from your mouth, wrap one around. See, that sinew's soft when you got it in your mouth.

(Yeah.)

Well, put one there, stick another one. Then, he starts, you know. It goes between, you know, between them feathers, you know.

(Yeah.)

Oh, they can fix them good.

(Yeah.)

There's two ways. Some of them, you can go way down as long as the feather, you know. You go way down if you're not lazy, you know.

(Yeah.)

But my father, he made some. He go about a inch.

(Yeah.)

Then, he--you don't put nothing on there, but he makes them about that long.

Then, he starts again, you know.

(Yeah.)

He made good arrows, you know.

(Yeah.)

But mostly they go way down, you know. You just put the whole feather on, you know.

(Yeah.)

Unidentified voice: When they had the shooting, did they win anything?

They have a contest so that they will win a bet?

(Joe, when--when they had that shooting contest, was there some kind of prize that they got? Or---)

Well, I wouldn't know, but--I wouldn't know, but they probably, you know.
