

"Nic-a-way."

(Now, how about a bow?)

Let's see. Let's see, (Wichita Indian word).

(Will you say it again?)

(Wichita Indian word)

(Will you say it once more?)

(Wichita Indian phrase), it just means bow, (Wichita Indian phrase). But they--they--they use that word (Wichita Indian word). That means something, you know, fat.

Unidentified voice: What they call the target?

(How about the target, Joe? What was it called?)

Uh, (static) well, the whole things means--I say (Wichita Indian word). Oh, it's got a name for it, (Wichita Indian word repeated twice)

(Wichita Indian word)

(Wichita Indian word)

(Okay. I'm going to put on another tape. This one's about run out.)

Hummm.

(End of tape)
