down to the creek, get some wood. They went down there. Give 'em a box and told 'em to bring some elem leaves, these elem leaves, you know. I said, "Pick 'em. I don't want you bringing no branches--pick 'em and put 'em in the box." 'So that's what they done. So when they brought it up there I had a hole due, oh, almost a foot deep. So I put a thin layer of that leaves. And I put that surtle. Then I put him on that--what do you call that? Tin foil?

(Evelyn: Aluminum Toil?)

Yeah, Dirt's (2) a getting on him so I trapped it around him, put him on his inchand I take a layer of that layers, elem leaves, and I put that tin foil on or, built big five there. 'Bout three hours, I juess (1) line. 'Bout this timeI buried him about noon. A ten that five lumned I was for a o'clock so we got him due. Use synde to dig him que. There was lot o'chromod--boy it's he!' took him out of that tin foil and put him on that long ben hes there. Just line pulling legs off with my lingers--hot. Mugsy ate it. I couldn't eat it. I must eat it.

(On account of your stomach?)

Yeah. I like it, but I can't est it. Grandson there, (Carl Ray Chalepah) to enjoyed it, Carl, and Muy sy's like to tel, Cobol, Irone's combininghtes. Ell (Allred's law jater) she enjoy it.

(Dif you ent some of it, Elly Loui) .

(Élle: Um-huh.)

(Mell, what 'tind of el. lerves 310 you ase?' Does it take may filtherence?)

Oh, those incell-these--I landy knows throws think of elm they could these-- nor a the cheek here. That's the only kind of dems we have here, on the creek.

(Do you ever sook any other kinds of turtles that va ?)

No, just only--let's see--how to we cook the other ones!

(Evely.:\Some way.)
