

Yeah. Before that it was just lost. That's the way they told us.

(Now why is it that you even get it back?)

I don't know.

(Is it because?)

Limitations, they said--I don't know. Status (sic) of Limitations.

(What I mean is, why wasn't he supposed to pay it in the first place?)

Well, he was told to pay it. He didn't agree, but he was forced to pay it.

I interpret her about three times. Last time was like the first time I interpret. Mr. Head--he was the Area Director--Superintendent. So Apache

Ben--- He was Director. And this fellow's already coming from Oklahoma City relative (to it)--(to see) why he's not paying it. (the income tax)

(This is income tax?)

Yeah. And somehow they told him to come to the Office. So we went there, went in right in the Area--Director's office. Went in there and Apache Ben had told him, he says, All they got, four hundred dollars. (corrects himself)

Four hundred and fifty. (In Ben's account) And he's supposed to pay eleven hundred.

This fellow's already coming. From the City. So Wade told us that he's supposed to stop at Chickasha. They got office there.. Serve papers on Apache Ben.

Well, he says, "Only way we could have this, you better let me have the money," he says. "I could guarantee, if you give me authority to take out so much out of your income--then your income--get so much a month. So--Apache Ben agreed.

That's way they paid it. See, they forced him. He was forced to pay that.

We don't know just what---

(interruption)

JULIA MULKEHAY

They all pay like that. Take this Julia--Julia, down here--Julia Mulkehay.

That's Florence--her name's Florence Achilta, you know--that's Fred Achilta's-- that's my uncle's wife. She paid. But she gave part of it to the Church.
