

(What did the other man you were with have to say?)

He didn't say anything. I went on the merry-go-round with this other man and that was it.

(How old was he when you met him?)

Oh, he was nine years older than I was.

(25?)

That's right. ((not clear))

He was more experienced than I was. I didn't know anything.

(Did he bring you home?)

No, we were with... No, he didn't bring me home. We come home by ourselves.

(What year was that?)

That was in '16 or '17. No, we was going to school in Okemah then, in '16. We moved from here to Okemah and going to school there. We was staying at Okemah that's why.

(When you met him?)

Yes.

(Did you walk home from the fair with this other guy?)

No, I just walked home with my sisters.

(When did you see him again, your husband?)

I think he come... Did he come to see me at the house? No, some other man did.

(Boy!)

Yeah. We went to the show and...this was a white man. He's still living here in town, too.

(He is?)

Yeah. We went to the show and...Well, he lived in Weleetka, my husband. and he would write to me. Then I went to... 7, 15. We decided we would go to Stillwater. He rode the train with us to Guthrie and then we went on down and he came on back.

(Did your father know him?)
