

Oh, yeah. I had a hard time but I made it. Don't know whether I want to do it again or not, but I made it.

(How big a house did you have?)

We just had two rooms.

(Two rooms. A kitchen and the front room ((?))

We had a bed over there and bed over there, a bed in the kitchen.

(My gosh. No privacy, hardly.)

No..

(Did you tell your daughter about menstruation and periods and everything?)

She found out herself.

(Oh she did?)

You know these kids now days know more than you do...know more about that than you do.

(Did you...did anybody tell the boys or did they find out themselves?)

I guess they found out themselves, too. Running around with other boys.

(Yeah. You had a well, or did you get all your water from the spring?)

Uh-huh. Well, we had a well for drinking and purposes, but they - we hauled water, the boys hauled water from the creek to wash clothes with - or from the spring.

(Did they help their father with the farming and everything?)

Uh-huh.

(What crops did you raise? You just raised a small garden?)

Just small crops, corn and cotton.

(Cotton?)

Uh-huh.

(You just sold it?)

Uh-huh.

(Did you ever make anything from the cotton, weave it?)
