

(Do you have any other source of income besides from your land?)

I got a pension check. Not old age pension, I am not gonna get all that old age pension. When the time comes, my husband was a first World War veteran and that's where I get my pension. That's all. And then I work, sometimes I work a week. I worked for four years at that cafe. And then I worked about a month ago, I worked a week. But I couldn't stand what I did. Two years ago. I got hurt in a car wreck. But that being in that wreck sure knocked me out a lot, I am telling you. Boy, that was a miserable six weeks I spent. I didn't know whether I was going to walk again or not. I met that other one that was driving...

(At Christmas time, what kind of Christmas did you have when you were little?)

I didn't know what Christmas was. Huh-uh, we didn't have no tree like we do have now.

(When you father became a preacher, did you have Christmas then?)

We had Christmas at the church. Had a big Christmas tree and have big church - preaching about Christmas and everything.

(Had you ever met any other preachers before your father became one? Didn't they ever tell you about...?)

Huh-uh.

(They didn't?)

No.

(Did you learn about Easter then?)

Yes. We used to put on a play at the Church.

(Did you have Thanksgiving?)

Uh-huh.

(What kind of plays did you put on at Easter time?)

Oh, about the birth of Christ and all that. ((unclear)) ...songs and
