

(He was the boys' advisor?)

Yeah, these boys were lazy you know and he would give them a job and he says clean your sack out good and you will get your reward. And I clean my sack out good and I find 50¢. I said, "George, I find 50¢." He said, "That's yours." Yeah.

(How many sacks of potatoes did you get to peel?)

Oh, I get about two of them I guess. That's a hard job, you know, you cut them up. You can't go fast.

BOYS WERE ALLOWED TO GO TO TOWN AFTER SCHOOL AND ON SUNDAYS

(What else did they punish you for?)

Well, they whip you hard. Boy they don't monkey with you. They whip you.

(Did they let you speak Kiowa?)

Yeah, I know that we could talk Kiowa.

(Did they ever take you to town?)

Oh, we go Saturday afternoon. Old town, you know we walk down there.

You here? Nobody take us down there when we go to town. There were about four or five stores down there.

(Name the stores.)

Kerner Fred (?) and C.A. Cleveland and Willow Cleveland and Bannister (?) and Boke and John Crane and a hotel, Mrs. Miller.

(What did you do in town?)

Well, we go in there, we got money and we eat at Miss Miller. Grandfather said that's where they bought the crackers and eat. He said we didn't know what candy was.

(What would you do on Sundays?)

Well, Sunday we just dress up and walk around and some of them go to Sunday school.

(Did they make them go to Sunday school?)
