

had it for a long time. Till my house was finished over here east of Boone. Then I brought it home and it's been here ever since. But now I took it to Fred, let him keep it for me when they remodeled that home they be beating, beating, so some day I'll go over there get hold of some more money make it right with Fred before I bring it home.

DESECRATION OF MEDICINE BUNDLE BY SOLDIERS:

(What kind of things are in your bundle?)

No, I don't understand them. I put a big piece of newspaper under there, you know and taking this out, these things. Seems like it got kind of a hide, with Indian paintings. Buffalo hide, with piece of it painted. In there, in that great big outfit there..I think they called it..Oh, I did know that name, but I forgot it. I forgot what name is. Suppose to be some corn in there, but so old now. My grandpa..my great-grandpa I think no it's my grandpa, said there's war going on ..be a lot of tipis, soldiers come along shooting, shooting them. My daddy was, oh, he must be about twelve years old. His daddy told him, "Run, better run. Run for your life." And he was inside and he paint himself..old many, my grandpa. Paint himself..He said, "I don't want to die of old age." He said "I want to die while I'm good yet." My daddy don't want to run. He say, "Run. I be over there, I catch you up." My daddy run away, so far he come back. Said he want his daddy to go. He said, "I be going up there now go on run, they getting closer." I could hear that bullet going zooo, zooo, zooo he said everybody running way up there. Course they some other men try to block that. And when he got to him that time the enemy come in the tipi and burn the tipis down. And the women, they all running. And this old man, he had some kind of a hammer like they made old time ones. I guess about that time, one man come in knocked him on the head. Another one was right behind, run in there and kill him, killed my grandpa. And they just took him out, and this big log was laying on east side somewhere, and they
