

cause they split with you. That's way they call. I know I used to be standing there watching them and whenever we see some drunk man, we run out back way.; Cause we want money from our parents. Sometimes they gave us a dime, I thought I was a millionaire. Now he just want a quarter.

(What kinds of tents did people stay in when they stayed there?)

Oh, tents, just like this common tent you see now. But my daddy, on account of him got this medicine you know, well he have to use tipi all time, and I used to don't like camp in tipi in winter time. I told him it's too smoky, it's cold from the back. I like to live in tent, but he can't..said we just can't. So we have to live in tipi. Lot of Indiaas go camp in tent.s.

(You said you were about nine when you were camping down there?)

Yea, about right along there.

(When did the Indians stop getting that annuity and stop camping there?)

Oh, my goodness, I don't know how many years..what year.

(Well, about how old were you?)

Oh, I been getting annuity payments for long time. Yea, till I must be about say, I could say I was about seventeen. Course, I been getting annuity payment right along. They..yea, I must be abouta seventeen.

(Did you camp most of the winters down there with the rest of ; the Apaches?)

No, no, we come home. Over here, old government house. Government has house on my land, my own division of land,

(Is it still out there?)

Yea, old government house. But it's just about gone.

(Louise, when these guys..these Indian traders gave you food on credit, did they charge interest?)

No, no, they don't charge interest, I know that they don't . Cause all the Indians goes in where they got some shawls, blankets, add those red
