

whenever she---

(Did they have any (not clear) or anything?)

No, they never did.

(Did your mother have any--)

They use to have a big camp down here. They use to call it (not clear) camp.

Use to come to dances around it. Rabbit Dances and like that.

(Did you sit together at these dances at all, or did you just come to it?)

No. I wasn't too well acquainted with people around here.

(Did he buy you anything when you'd come?)

Well, when I first met him at Cantonment, he brought me a lipstick.

(That was nice. Did he buy you anything else?)

He bought me--before we got married? No.

(Did he tease you?)

Oh, he use to hardly ever talk. I did most of the talking.

(Did you use to tease him?)

Oh yes, I use to tease him.

(Did you have a special name you called him, or--)

No.

(Did he ever have any names for you?)

No.

(How did you--did you hold hands or anything?)

No, we didn't hold hands or---now days that goes on.

How far did he get in school?

Oh, about the eighth grade.

(Did he ask you to marry him or how did he go about that?)

Umhum, he asked me and he asked my sister.
